

Segregation of Races

Unfair Poll Tax

Separate Facilities

How Jim Crow Laws Affected African Americans:

1. Unfair poll taxes and voting tests were established to keep African Americans from voting.
2. African Americans found it difficult to vote or to hold public office.
3. African Americans were forced to use separate drinking fountains.
4. African American and white children attended separate schools.

Sharecropper's Home

Sharecropping was a system common in Virginia after the war in which freedmen and poor white farmers rented land from a landowner by promising to pay the owner with a share of the crop.

Jim Crow Laws Affected the Lives of African Americans

Separate Schools

Segregated Restaurants

Separate Drinking Fountains and Restrooms

Protesting Segregation

Difficulty Voting