

USI and Virginia Studies Foldable Templates

March 2012

Developed by
Susie Orr, Elementary Social Studies Specialist
Fairfax County Public Schools
Susan.Orr@fcps.edu
703-846-8703

The folding techniques are based on the work of Dinah Zike, Dinah-Might Adventures, LP.

Permission for Use

Teachers, specialists, coordinators, and/or other school personnel may use the templates and materials posted on this web site for instructional purposes with students. The contents may be shared with other colleagues so that they may also use the templates with students.

Permission is not granted for the following:

- Selling the materials for profit
- Using the materials in presentations for which the presenter is being paid a stipend or fee for the presentation
- Posting the materials on the internet

Primary sources, images and maps are included in these foldables. The source is cited for each and permission for use followed.

It is strongly recommended that a training session be held for teachers so that they become familiar with the folding techniques used in these templates. It is also recommended that teachers who use the Virginia SOL templates obtain a copy of one of Dinah Zike's books. Clear directions for the folding techniques are in each of her books.

Dinah Zike's Big Book of Social Studies, Elementary K-6
ISBN-13 978-1-882796-20-5 Stock Number: CCC103
Dinah's books can be ordered directly from:
www.dinah.com 1-800-993-4624

The second book in Dinah's new "Big Book" series, this book features thousands of ideas for teaching elementary social studies using graphic organizers. Included in the book are instructions for 32 manipulatives, over 100 full-color, photographed examples, approximately five black-line art examples per page, and thousands of graphic organizer ideas. Topics are divided into three categories, General Social Studies, United States History, and World History. 136 pages, 8 1/2"x11".